

HOOVER, EMMERSON, STRATTON ARE VICTORS

RECORDS BROKEN BY NATION'S VOTE

Hoover Wins Presidency in Decisive Battle of Ballots.

G. O. P. GAINS IN SENATE

Changes Reduce Democratic Vote in Both Branches of Congress—Body
to Be Drier Than Ever.

In the most remarkable outpouring
of votes in the history of American politics, Herbert Hoover was chosen for the Presidency by the most impressive and decisive majority of the popular will ever recorded.

Gov. Alfred E. Smith, the defeated
Democratic candidate, carried only Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana,
Mississippi, Rhode Island and South Carolina, seven states, to thirty-nine
for Hoover. Smith lost his home
state, New York, which has four times
elected him to be its governor, and Hoover crashed the solid South with victories in Texas, Florida, Virginia
and North Carolina, plus the border states.

Nearly 40,000,000 Voted.

The total popular vote, estimated to be around 40,000,000, will not show
that total far. Hoover's indicated plurality in popular votes is in excess of 6,000,000. Coolidge and Harding won by better than 7,000,000.

The greatest total electoral vote
previous to this year was given to Woodrow Wilson in his first contest
for the office in 1912. He gathered 435 votes to 88 for Roosevelt and 8
for Taft. In the 1916 contest Wilson was re-elected with 277 votes to 251
for Charles Evans Hughes. Harding's
total was 404 to 127 for Cox in 1920
and in 1924 Coolidge was given 382
to 139 for Davis and 13 for La Follette.

Popular vote pluralities for Hoover
ranged from 5,000 in New Mexico and Utah up to 500,000 in California, 600, 000 in Michigan, 600,000 in Ohio and 1,000,000 in Pennsylvania.

Governor Smith lost his own state,
New York, by 100,000 and Wisconsin
by 100,000. Hoover won Illinois by 300,000 to 450,000.

Hoover Triumph in East.

The Republican candidate swept
the wet East, which Smith had relied on to carry him into the White House.
He swept the Middle West and the Far West, where the farmers failed to bolt the Republican ticket in sufficient numbers to benefit Smith materially.

Smith's hopes of the White House
went glimmering early in the evening
of election day, when the first returns
from New York indicated that he had lost his home state, of which he has been four times governor, by a plurality estimated at from 100,000 to 150,000.

Big Hoover Pluralities.

cut were carried by Hoover by de-

CHAIRMAN OF COUNTY DESERVING OF CREDIT FOR PARTY SUCCESS

Max Pryzborski Worked
Quietly and Efficiently
In Campaign.

Giving credit where credit is due
is the case when praise is given Max
L. Pryzborski, North Chicago attorney, who served as chairman of the Republican Central committee in Lake county during the campaign,
and did more than any other person
in causing the county to poll such a great vote for his party. He looked after details and he handled the big jobs. He wasn't a man to seek glory or to "play to the grandstands." He went about his work efficiently and quietly.

This is the first time that Mr. Pry-zborski has served as chairman of the Republican Central committee, although he served as secretary for two years. In the primary he was campaign manager for Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom. Mr. Pryzborski had the satisfaction Tuesday of seeing the men for whom he had been working, gain a two to one vote in this county.

Special Music Feature at Firemen's Armistice Ball Saturday Night

Metropole Club, Milwaukee's Best, Will Play at Annual Dance.

The stage is all set for the Firemen's Armistice ball at the Antioch
Sales & Service Garage Saturday
night, November 10, and the event
this year promises to be the greatest
'hoop' in the history of the Antioch
Volunteer Fire Department.

For ten years, since the close of the world war, Antioch Firemen
have sponsored a dance at Armistice
time, success both financially and socially marking each successive event.

The music feature Saturday night
will be the Metropole club, colored orchestra, said to be the best in Milwaukee, and the firemen, headed by Chief James Stearns, are cordially inviting everybody to be present at the tenth annual ball.

The fire department is one of the community's liveliest and most valuable organizations. Through their efforts thousands of dollars in property
is saved every year and because of their insurance costs are much lower than they would be without a first-class fire-fighting equipment and organization. Come to the dance Saturday and enjoy the music even if you do not care to dance.

ANTIOCH TO PLAY LIBERTYVILLE MONDAY.

Much depends on the results of the Antioch-Libertyville football game to be played Monday afternoon on the local field.

Coaches of both of the high school
teams are preparing for a real battle
—for the contest is certain to be a give and take proposition. If a one-
sided score is piled up by either team,
it will be quite a surprise. If Liberty-ville wins the contest, the pennant
is clinched, for the Libertyville team
will be the championship outfit of the Northwest conference. If Antioch
should come out on top, the two schools will be tied for first place.

SCHOOL BELL HAS NEW HOME.

For 31 years the bell on the building of the Antioch Grade
school has tolled the hours
when the pupils should be at school. For 31 years the bell has harbored a great many secrets
regarding the old building but now the bell has a new home—a home on top of the new grade school building. The change of lodging was made Saturday.

Engraved on the bell, which weighs 500 pounds, are the names of the school board members in 1897. Those serving at that time were A. N.
Tiffany, president; William Smart, and A. G. Watson. The
bell was purchased of the C.
Campbell and Son company, Milwaukee, according to the trade mark. It is said the tone
today is the same as 31 years
ago. The school is now situated in District 34, but in 1897
the district was known as Three.

NO SOLUTION FOUND TO SOLVE MYSTERY

Several Clews Abandoned
By State's Attorney
And Staff.

No solution has been found of the mystery surrounding the death of Miss Elfrida Knaak, 29, Lake Bluff
woman who was found burned almost
to death in the Lake Bluff village hall
last week.

Several clews have been abandoned by Col. A. V. Smith, state's attorney, and his men. Two anonymous
letters have been received by Mr.
Smith, offering "tips" and trying to place the blame. Mr. Smith says that he will probably receive a number of such letters regarding the case.

Miss Knaak died saying that she burned herself, but it is the belief of authorities that no one could inflict
such punishment on one's self.

START TO SERVE

Harold Martin and George Hoone, Negroes, Chicago, who took part in the murder of William Beck, Milburn, last May and pleaded guilty to manslaughter a few weeks ago, are now inmates of Pontiac reformatory.
They were sentenced to have inde-
terminate terms of from one to 14
years and were taken from the county jail to Pontiac this week.

Hoone and Martin played but a minor part in the murder. They drove out to Millburn with Claude
Clark, John Brown and Domitiek
Hresette, but did not go to the Beck
house, remaining in the automobile.

Brown, Clark and Hresette played
major parts in the murder and all will be electrocuted December 15.

POLL PICK-UPS

Record Vote Is Cast in Lake County;
Hoover Leads in Forty States Of Union.

When 39,332 persons marched to the polls Tuesday in Lake county,
they cast the largest vote ever recorded. The vote was almost 14,000 more than the number cast in the primaries in April, and the primary vote
was a record one.

Forty states declared that Hoover
was their choice for president of the United States, leaving only eight in favor of Smith. The popular vote
plurality of 8,000,000 for Hoover is greater than that for Coolidge four years ago and for Harding eight years ago.

ALMOST DROWNS

While hunting ducks, L. C. Blank, Antioch, nearly met death by drowning Saturday at Browning, Illinois.
Mr. Blank was in a blind and had placed his decoys. A flock of mallards swung in and as he turned he tumbled into the river. Loaded down
by his hunting clothes, it was difficult to save him, according to his companions, George Nielsen and William Mertie, who made the rescue.

THANK YOU, BOYS!

Boy Scouts were responsible
for the bonfire which was built on the vacant lots west of Main street election night. The fire
was a large one, and much time
and effort were spent by the Scouts in getting ready for the celebration. The fire had the "smack" of a real, old-fashioned election night jubilee.

FIREMEN INVESTIGATE FINDING OF KEROSENE CANS AFTER BLAZE

Two Alarms Are Answered
By Antioch Men Within
Few Hours.

Two fire alarms were sounded with-
in a few hours of each other this week in Antioch, the first being sounded about 7:30 Monday night
and the second at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The first alarm was the result of a prairie fire in the Hatch slough near Grass Lake. The fire endangered the property of Paul Chase and John Wilcox, but no damage was done to the properties.

When firemen answered the second
call which was to Klondike, two small cottages, less than a year old,
owned by Fred Newman and Ludwig Newman, were afire. Damages are estimated to be about $75. In extinguishing this blaze, firemen discovered a quantity of kerosene cans
in the buildings. It is said. The blaze was discovered by Joe Anzinger,
whose farm is located to the south
and to the rear of the cottages.
Mr. Anzinger's dog barked until Mr.
Anzinger was awakened. The entire family kept the fire under control
until the Antioch firemen arrived.

The firemen collected as much
evidence as possible regarding the kerosene cans, and with the deputy
fire marshal of Crystal Lake, are making a thorough investigation as to the possible cause of the fire.

New School Building Is to Be Formally Opened Next Sunday

Mrs. Lux and Mrs. Allner
Are Heading Committee
Making Plans.

Formal opening of the new Antioch
Grade school building will be held Sunday afternoon and evening, according to an announcement made
this afternoon by W. C. Petty, principal. Mrs. Charles Lux and Mrs.
Richard Allner are in charge of plans.

Many local contractors had a part in the construction and equipping of the fine new school building. Among them are Chas. N. Lux, wiring and electrical equipment; H. P. Lowry, plumbing; and J. E. Sibley and Son, building contractors. Heating and ventilating was by the American Heating and Ventilating Co., Chicago.

Associated with Sibley and Son
as sub-contractors were: Henry Dresman, Burlington, Wis., mason
work; H. R. Adams & Co., Antioch, lumber and building material; Antioch Lumber & Coal Co., millwork;
Independent Roofing Co., Kenosha,
Wis., roofing; Chris Laursen, Antioch,
concrete work; H. Regener Co.,
terrazzo floors; Ferro Steel & Iron
Co., Waukegan, and McKinney Steel
Co., North Chicago, steel work; E.
G. Yaeger, Peoria, Ill., blackboards;
Howard Co., Milwaukee, linoleum;
Clyde Wentworth, Antioch, painting;
D. H. Sablin, Antioch, sheet metal;
Henry Dresman, Burlington, plaster-
ing; John O'Connor, Racine, Wis., cut stone.

The architect was John C. Scribbens, Glencoe, Illinois.

Star center of the Antioch basketball team, Carl Barthel, underwent a surgical operation for the removal of the appendix Monday evening in Waukegan. His condition today is reported as favorable.

JACKSON, McDONOUGH AND LYONS WIN OVER BOLGER FOR LEGISLATIVE SEATS

For the first time in the history of the eighth senatorial district two of the three representatives chosen Tuesday were Lake county residents
—Lee McDonough, Waukegan plumb-
er and former treasurer of Lake county, and Richard J. Lyons, realtor of Mundelein, both successful over their Democratic opponent, Thomas A.
Bolger of McHenry. It was a clean sweep for Republicans, for also in

STRATTON BRINGS HONOR TO COUNTY

When William J. "Bill" Stratton was elected secretary of state by the people of Illinois Tuesday, it marked
the first time that a Lake county man
has ever been chosen to hold a high state office. Lake county is proudly rejoicing over Mr. Stratton's victory, for more than 16 years he has been prominent in Lake county politics and has been a favorite of the residents of the district he served.

Mr. Stratton was born near Fox
Lake 42 years ago, the son of a farmer and livery stable keeper. He attended school in Ingleside and completed two years of high school work.

The first public office Bill Stratton
held was in 1912 when he was elected supervisor of Grant township on
the county board of commissioners.
In 1916 he was appointed deputy game warden. He served 14 years
from 1920 to 1928 he was chairman of the Lake County Republican Central committee.

In 1921 Mr. Stratton became chief game warden under the administration of Governor Len Small. He was named the first director of the department of conservation when the department of conservation was created in 1925. He was defeated in 1926 as a candidate for state treasurer. In the primary this year he lost only two of the 102 counties of Illinois.

Mr. Stratton is married and has two sons, William, Jr., 14 years old,
and Kerwin, 12.

BOND ISSUE FAILS

Lake county voters who expressed themselves on the proposition of authorizing the state to issue $20,- 000,000 of serial bonds for a state wide system of hunting and fishing
grounds were favorable to the measure, 16,236 voting for the proposition
and 12,544 against it in 62 of the 63
precincts of the county. The total vote polled in the county, nearly 40,- 000, indicates that about 10,000 failed to mark the small ballot. Failure to vote the ballot counts as a vote against the proposition. Thus, in Antioch township there were 1101 votes
cast, 452 marking "yes" and 405 voting "no", while 241 failed to mark the ballot, the measure losing here 649
to 452.

The proposition lost heavily in the state.

EMMERSON WINS OVER THOMPSON

Republican Ticket Sweeps
the State—Otis F. Glenn Is Elected U. S. Senator.

McCormick (R), Richard Yates (R)

More than keeping pace with Hoover and Curtis, Louis L. Emmerson, Republican, easily won the governorship of Illinois from his Democratic rival, Floyd E. Thompson; and the rest of the Republican state ticket, as given at the head of the column, rode
in comfortably on the great G. O. P.
wave.

Considering the wet sentiment in Chicago and Cook county and the three-fifths fight among the Republicans of the metropolis, the result was highly satisfactory to the leaders of the victorious party. Cook county gave Hoover a majority of about 100,000, and Emmerson captured
it from Thompson with a minority that, added to the figures from the other counties, gave him the state by something like 500,000.

Glenn Wins Senatorship.

Otis F. Glenn, who shared with Emmerson the brunt of the state battle, had a much harder fight to defeat
his Democratic opponent for United States senator, A. J. Cernick of Chicago, who was openly wet and popular
and who benefited by the votes thrown

ANTIOCH BUSINESS CLUB WILL HEAR TWO ADDRESSES

Two speakers will be heard at the meeting of the Antioch Business Men's club to be held Monday night
at 6:30 o'clock in the Depner cafe.

D. H. Geyer, a farmer of Harvard,
Illinois, and a director of the Pure Milk Producer's association is to speak on "Milk Production." The subject of the other talk, which is to be delivered by Prof. Carl Hutchinson, Chicago university, is to be the
"Milk Consumer and the Producer."

A general discussion is to be held concerning how the Republican party's policies are in accordance with the farmers' co-operation program.

PADDOCK UNOPPOSED FOR SENATOR JOB

Voting for Ray Paddock, candidate
for state senator, was a mere formality with Republican voters in Lake county Tuesday, as the Wauconda man was unopposed. Paddock, former supervisor and twice chairman
of the county board, succeeds Rodney B. Swift, of Highland Park, who was defeated in the Republican primaries
last April.

No Opposition for County Candidates

"Re-elected without opposition"—
that seems to tell the story of the return of five Lake county officials to office Tuesday. The re-elects are:
State's Attorney A. V. Smith, elected
for third term; County Recorder L.
O. Brockway, Circuit Clerk L. J. Wilmot, Coroner John L. Taylor and County Surveyor Charles E. Russell.
Oldest in age and years of service
is Mr. Brockway, recorder, who has held office for the past 25 years and has been an employee at the court house for 35 years.

The youngest official is Mr. Brock-
way's son-in-law, Circuit Clerk, L. J.
Wilmut, re-elected Tuesday for his second term.

Coroner Taylor will start his eighth term in that office in December. County Surveyor Russell has held office for 16 years. He was victorious
over three candidates at the primaries in April.

Edward Lynch spent Monday with his parents.
James Lynch returned Friday from Frankfort, Kentucky.

OF VACATION JOURNEY

By Mrs. D. A. Williams

Our party consisted of Mrs. D. A. Williams, Miss Ruth Williams, Mrs. Elsie Schroeder and Mrs. Catherine Brandt. Soon after leaving Chicago we passed the beautiful sand dunes south of Lake Michigan. Words can not describe the October beauty of these hills. Northern Indiana is wonderful this time of the year. Leaving Indiana we drove through Ohio to Lima and just beyond there stayed overnight in Kenton. The following morning we passed through Marion and by the Harding monument, then through Columbus and Zanesville where we began striking hills and heavily wooded country that kept us exclaiming over the wonderful coloring. The second night we were in Wheeling, West Virginia, and stayed at the "Old Stone House" 10 miles beyond Wheeling. We were between immense hills, and in a grand place too. The next morning we were not long in reaching Maryland. We all decided that this was the most beautiful drive we had ever taken. We went over mountains and such coloring. By night we reached Frederick, Maryland, and stopped. We went through the old home of Barbara Fritchie we saw the flag which was the inspiration of Whitier's poem and we also saw many other objects of interest, including a clock more than 200 years old, brought from Germany by Barbara Fritchie's parents. As one looks down from the mountains over Frederick and the surrounding country it brings tears as one realizes the truths in that poem which we all have read. You see it all, "the clustering spires of Frederick stand, green-walled by the hills of Maryland"—and you remember "the early fall when Lee marched over the Mountain wall."

The following morning we drove to Harpers' Ferry, 30 miles distant, where from the heights you may see three states and two large rivers come together, beautiful with mountains on every side. We then drove to Washington, D. C. and through to Alexandria, Virginia. Near here we found quite inexpensive bungalow apartments, where we stopped. In the afternoon we drove to Arlington cemetery where we saw the beautiful white marble amphitheatre and the tomb of the unknown soldier. A soldier is constantly marching guarding this tomb. Each guard is on duty four hours. The next morning we visited three of the Smithsonian buildings. We saw the "Spirit of St. Louis" and were really surprised to see what a small plane "Lindy" used in his famous flight. It is useless to attempt to tell all one can see in the Capitol buildings. The Pan American is one of the most wonderful. In the evening we visited the beautiful Congressional Library and saw the original Declaration of Independence. We were only six miles from Mt. Vernon so the following morning we spent looking over the estate, home and tomb of George Washington. It is beautiful—the grand old trees, flowers and shrubs with the singing of the mocking birds make it seem heavenly. We recalled the lovely old song of our school days "Tut-tut not his slumbers. Let Washington sleep. 'Neath the boughs of the willows. Which over him weep."

Here, the Potomac is broad and beautiful and we had never seen so many beautiful weeping willows as along its banks. In the afternoon we drove through Washington to the great falls in the Potomac river, then through the zoological garden with its lonely ravines and woods. Our attention was mostly centered on a baby llama, and a parrot that was constantly telling us to "watch, watch out!" In the evening Elsie Sheeta, originator and owner of the Martha Washington Candy stores took us through his building which is filled with real antiques and also through his private home. The next morning a guide took us through the Capitol and White House. In the afternoon we visited the Washington cathedral, and saw the tombs of President Wilson and Admiral Dewey. Later in the day we drove through Potomac Park, saw the Lincoln Memorial and Washington monument and the many beds of roses.

Next morning bright and early we visited the Freer Art museum, and then drove to Annapolis, another beautiful old city. I will only mention the tree, over 600 years old, under which Washington resigned his commission, as commander-in-chief of the army and bade his troops farewell, and the Crypt in the chapel containing the remains of John Paul Jones. We then drove through Baltimore to Gettysburg. Here we employed a guide, to ride with us through the 35 square miles of the terrible conflict of 1863. It is sadly beautiful and interesting. After staying all night in Gettysburg our ride over the mountains seemed a small thing. While in Washington we visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Williams, a cousin older than our own E. H. Williams. In Cleveland, Ohio, we visited other cousins, Mrs. Julia Buckingham Green and daughters, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Howard. After making a brief visit at the home of Adam Brandt, in Lorraine, Ohio, we drove home in one day to Chicago. It is really only a three day's trip from Chicago to Washington over fine and well projected roads all the way. And it is a trip no one will regret having taken.

FARM BUREAU STARTS DRIVE FOR MEMBERS

A membership maintenance training school was held by the Lake County Farm Bureau in Grayslake last week. One hundred men were in attendance and received instruction as to how to proceed with the membership drive which opened today.

The meeting was called to order by President E. Harris. J. C. Spiller, of the Extension service of the University of Illinois, gave an interesting talk on the relation of the University and the United States Department of Agriculture with the Farm Bureau work, outlining the best methods to use in Farm Bureau work to achieve the greatest success.

M. S. Winder, Secretary of the American Farm Bureau federation, which has over a million members, ton, is visiting his uncle, Daniel Longman and family.

There was a large attendance at the card and luncheon party held in Social Center hall on Saturday night. The prizes in Five Hundred were awarded to Mrs. Kinreed, Mrs. Norman; in Luncheon to Nina Marks, Virginia Norman, Alfred Oetting and Floyd Lubeno.

Helen Kavanaugh spent Saturday with Betty Gallert, Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Runyard and son, Vernon, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith were shoppers in Kenosha Saturday.

Otto Allen will move his household goods and his family to Wilmet as the Spanish house which he has been occupying was recently sold to Philip Lavenduski who has rented his place of business to the owner of "Tip Top Inn" on the Antioch road.

Mrs. John Geyer entertained the Larkin club Thursday afternoon. Those in attendance from a distance were: Mrs. William Zimmerman, Mrs. Sadie Hawkins, Forest Park; Mrs. Pete Peterson and Mrs. Adelson, Kenosha. Luncheon was played. The prizes were won by Mrs. Lulliver Lassen, Mrs. William Zimmerman, Mrs. Klaus Marks, Mrs. Frank Moran and Mrs. Alvin Moran.

Mrs. Julius Lingen and Mrs. Oetting were shoppers in Kenosha Thursday.

Help Us to Give Good Service

It would doubtless surprise most telephone users to learn that the Illinois Bell Telephone Company is obliged to repair hundreds of telephones every year which are put out of order by being dropped.

Of course, the repairs are made promptly no matter what happens, but the user is necessarily deprived of his service for at least a short time when such an accident occurs and this might be the time when the telephone would be most needed. It is therefore in the subscriber's own interest that we suggest that care be taken not to damage the instrument.

Windows left open in summer, admitting a sudden rain storm, are also responsible for a great many cases of trouble. Occasionally a bottle of ink or a glass of water is overturned, wetting the telephone cord, and this also causes trouble.

Subscribers will aid us in giving them the best service by taking good care of the equipment.

ALL ABOUT WHAT THE
LITTLE CHILDREN ARE DOING IN ANIMAL WORLD

BY V. LUDEL BODEN

Well, boys and girls, what do you want to hear about today? Can't you think of anything in particular? Think again! Oh, now some one has suggested something. Guess what? Yes sir, Mary Anna wants to hear all about the Skunk children or their pajamas and mamas or their aunties and uncles or their cousins and—but you'd better listen now and hear about the Skunks, especially the Skunk children.

Stripey-ipey Skunk is the cutest little skunk anyone could imagine—that is, you couldn't imagine so cute a skunk if you had not seen Stripey-ipey's two brothers, Question-eston and Longy-nosey. Do you know why Longy-nosey is called Longy-nosey? And do you know why Question-eston is called Question-eston? Well, Question-eston is ALWAYS asking questions and Longy-nosey is ALWAYS prying into everyone else's affairs, sticking his nose in other persons' business, we say. And, boys and girls, after you read this story you can easily see that the two Skunk boys are well named. Stripey-ipey is named Stripey-ipey, of course, because he has a beautiful coat, with beautiful stripes.

Now these three Skunk boys, being brothers play together all of the time. They play all kinds of games—and sometimes they play with the other Skunk children and the other children in Animal Land. And I wish you might have seen all of the Animal children out tick-tacking Halloween night! They certainly had one glorious time, and they had some narrow and thrilling escapes, too, but Halloween was a week ago so you don't want to hear about their tricks, do you? So listen to what happened yesterday.

The Skunk boys decided early in the morning that they would go for a hike. Boys and girls, of course, would not go on a hike when it is so cold, but Skunk children don't mind the cold. They play around in the snow just as though the snow were grass. When they started on the hike they each took a knapsack. A knapsack, boys and girls, is a canvas or leather case, like soldiers carry, for carrying food and camping equipment. Stripey-ipey carried food in his knapsack; Question-eston carried dry wood, matches, and materials for making the fire to cook the food, and Longy-nosey had just a little bit of everything—some magazines to read, some baseballs, and some other little things.

Those Skunk boys walked and walked, and all along the way Question-eston would ask questions such as: "How far do you think we'll go?" or "Do you suppose we will have enough to eat?" or "Don't you want to stop a little while and play ball?" or a dozen other things. Stripey-ipey said that he and his brothers had better watch out for traps, and they'd better be careful where they stepped. Just then Longy-nosey saw a place that he thought he would like to slide down hill.

"Do you suppose there is a trap under the leaves on the slope?" asked Question-eston. And Longy-nosey thought he'd snoop around and find out.

"I wouldn't if I were you," Stripey-ipey warned. But Longy-nosey didn't pay any attention. He went up and slid down the slope once and then he slid down again.

"Ha! Ha!" he said boastfully. "I knew there wasn't any trap." Then he started snooping around to see what he could find in the leaves, and guess what he found! Well, he found a trap—he stuck his nose in it, too, and oh! such a wall as he did make. You know how it hurts to get your fingers pinched in a door, don't you? Well, it hurts even worse to get your nose pinched in a strong steel trap.

When Longy-nosey screamed, his brothers went to his rescue, and after a minute or two Longy-nosey was free. But oh! his nose was as sore as it could be. All day he had the sorest nose, so sore that he couldn't play ball or eat much or enjoy himself in any way.

That night when Longy-nosey Stripey-ipey and Question-eston went home, Longy-nosey said: "I am never, never going to stick my nose where it doesn't belong." "Why?" asked Question-eston.

WILMOT HIGH SCHOOL BAND IS PRACTISING REGULARLY; 17 PIECES

The band of Union Free High school is composed of 17 persons. There are seven clarinets, two cornets, four saxophones, one trombone, two basses and the drums. Those playing the clarinet are: Gilbert Berry, Muriel Dean, Jack Kavanaugh, Norman Jedele, Norman Ruasch, Lois Romey and Lloyd Rush. Cornet players are: Earl Elfers and Deane Loftus. Saxophones are: Malcolm Dalton, Edwin Hasch, Donald Schmalzfeldt, and Marjorie Van Lier. Bass players are Lester Buffon and Preston Stoxen. George Hockney plays a trombone, and Forest Allen the drums.

Mrs. M. Carey and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carey and daughter, McHenry, were dinner guests Sunday at the Carey home.

There will be English services at 10:30 o'clock next Sunday morning at the Lutheran church.

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid sponsored a shower for Mrs. John Moleksi, formerly Freda Greenwald, Saturday afternoon.

Ten boys, Arthur Bloss, Clinton Voss, George Hockney, Winsor Madden, Richard DeBell, Adolph Flegel, Frederick Gilmore, Malcolm Dalton, Charles Lake and Earl Elfers, from the Union Free High school, accompanied by their Agricultural teacher, M. M. Schurr left Thursday noon for Madison for a cattle judging contest. The boys will remain for the Wisconsin-Alabama football game Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Olson is ill with the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stoxen announce the birth of a son, October 31, in the Burlington hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Loftus and daughter, Helen, were in Burlington Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cole left Saturday for Lake Arthur in Louisiana. Mr. and Mrs. Cole are driving through and expect to make many stops on their way. During the winter they will continue further south through Florida.

C. Weigel is motoring to Madison Friday night where he will be the end of the week guest of Eldon Mulder. Mr. Weigel is to attend the Alabama-Wisconsin game, also.

Arthur Stoxen, Wauconda, spent Wednesday with his parents here.

At a recent meeting of the County Board at Kenosha it was decided to repair the Wilmot dam and the work was referred to the Road and Bridge committee for contract letting. Right-of-way over the adjoining property has been obtained so work may be carried on.

Mary Honlden accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Mathews, Antioch, to Burlington, Wednesday night.

After running a passenger and mail train that accommodated the territory between Kenosha and Harvard for 62 years the Northwestern railroad took the train off last week and transferred the mail coach to the Borden milk train. Mail now leaves Wilmot at 9:30 o'clock in the morning with the first distribution at 10:30, again in the afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with mail distribution again at 3:30 or 4 o'clock. The Chicago Daily News sends out a truck that arrives with that paper at 4:30 o'clock and the Kenosha News is covering the entire county by truck. The Kenosha News is ready for distribution at 5:30. So far the Milwaukee papers have made no attempt to deliver night papers.

Forty-five of Otto Hanke's friends surprised him on his birthday anniversary Wednesday night. Euchre was the program for the evening and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Fred Mecklenberg and Herman Elbert.

How We Market Our Products

(The following article was written by Norman Barthel, sophomore in the Agriculture department, Antioch Township High school.—Ed note.) We market our products differently than some other farmers do in our community.

We have an 80 acre farm on which we raise feed for our livestock. We sell no hay or grain but feed it to our livestock and sell the products received from them.

We keep twenty head of cattle, four horses, three brood sows, six sheep, and about 400 chickens. We separate our milk, and sell the cream. The skim milk is fed to the chickens and pigs. It causes them to gain weight much faster and the mature hens will lay a great many more eggs.

Along with the milk the pigs and poultry get the required grain to balance their rations.

We generally have three acres of potatoes and two acres of other vegetables. The surplus from these gardens along with the eggs, dressed poultry and other products is sold at our modern roadside stand. By thus converting our farm crops to valuable food products we are losing only twenty cents worth of soil fertility out of every ton of field crops that we harvest.

Consolation was given Mrs. August Prim, Evanston, and Charles Frank, Luncheon was served at twelve o'clock.

The Wisconsin Gas company is sponsoring a three-day cooking school November 13, 14 and 15. Miss Lowe, Pleasant Prairie, will conduct the demonstration.

The Wilmot Pirate Basketball team held its third practise Monday evening. The team is rapidly regaining its former excellent form and speed. The first game is scheduled at Wilmot for Tuesday, November 27. Games have also been booked with Somers, Antioch, McHenry, Burlington, Genoa City and Waukegan.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Carter, Peotone, were end of the week guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Carter, Wilmot.

Mrs. Grace Burton, Richmond, spent Saturday with Mrs. Frank Kruckman and family, Burlington, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Patrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bruns, Forest Park, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pacey.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Krahn and family, Bristol, spent Sunday at the Fred Pagel home.

Mrs. Rose Hockney and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Leese, Antioch, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Faulkner.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Pacey were in Kenosha Thursday afternoon and attended Uncle Tom's Cabin at the Kenosha theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holtdorf were at Rockford Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stoxen and family. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stoxen attended the silver wedding anniversary Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Powers Wauconda. Mrs. Powers is a sister of Mrs. A. C. Stoxen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Will Rush in Bassetts.

Mr. and Mrs. George Faulkner entertained Mr. and Mrs. Herzog, East Troy, Sunday.

Mrs. B. C. Burton spent the end of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hegeman.

Ether Kauls is home from the Union Grove Normal school for the week as she is doing practise teaching at the Miler school, Klondike. Sunday Miss Kauls was in Waterford for the day with Florence Blackburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Perry, Kenosha, were out Sunday for the day with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Loftus.

NO THIRD STRIKE

"Johnson, batter!" yelled the score keeper.

He did not need to call my name. As I stepped to the plate, I looked out at three full bases. I well knew that this was the last half of the ninth inning, with the score one against our team and two men out.

The pitcher made several circles with his arm. The ball came swiftly although six inches to the right of the plate. I swung and missed.

"Strike one," called the umpire. The next throw was a swift straight ball which was much too high. I swung but missed again.

"Strike two," called the umpire for the second time. I decided I would not have him say it again.

This time the ball was where I wanted it. I struck and hit it far above the heads of my opponents. Surpassing all my previous records, I left first, second, and third bases behind me and reached home only a few seconds before the well aimed ball of the fielder. The other players who had reached home and scored were now cheering.

Their cheering did not compare with my joy, however, for the game was saved.

AUTOISTS FLEEDED OF $20,000,000 THROUGH SHORT GAS MEASURE

Only Eight States Have Taken Action to Protect Car Owners.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—"Although motorists spent $2,350,000,000 for gasoline and oil in 1927, only eight states have taken action to protect the car owners from short measures," Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club, announced today.

"A recent survey by the American Automobile association revealed that the motoring public is fleeced of approximately $20,000,000 a year through 'short sales' of motor fuels," Mr. Hayes pointed out. "It is deplorable that so few states have made provision for checking the sales of 317,000 gas stations and 604,000 pumps that were in operation last year.

"The eight states that check these sales are California, Indiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New York and Ohio. Illinois is one of twenty-five commonwealths which have passed protective legislation but are without sufficient appropriations with which to enforce those laws.

LOCAL CLUB GOES TO BOYS' SCHOOL TO HOLD MEETING

More than 40 women of the Antioch Women's club, a large delegation from the Lake Villa Women's club and several state district and county officers, visited the Allendale Farm, Lake Villa, Monday afternoon. A tour of the buildings and grounds was made.

The business meetings of the two clubs were held separately. At the Antioch session only routine business was transacted. Following the business meeting the clubs met in joint session in the dining room of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bradley. Mr. Bradley was founder and is director of the school. Mr. Bradley gave a short address of welcome.

Mrs. P. Hamlin, president of the Lake Villa organization presided. Music was furnished by a women's chorus from the Zion Women's club. A short talk was given by Mrs. Boyea, chairman of the Home Making committee of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs. She spoke on her subject "Better Home Making."

The old-fashioned home of Mr. Bradley was depicted as a real home by Mrs. Boyea, where the true home spirit prevails. She stressed the importance of home-making and to bring their friends to the home, for this she believes will make better citizens.

"The housewife's home," the speaker declared, "has everything to do with, but unless the home is made of the opportunities the housewife is not doing her part. Every person has some particular talent, and the greatest and highest talents should be fostered, not buried. For when one uses one's talents one is not encroaching on the rights of others."

Home-making and home-making are not synonymous. Mrs. Boyea said who added that every woman should take a part in home-making. Knowledge of the home and of a woman's responsibility in helping others and taking part in the making up of the community.

Another speaker, Mrs. W. H. O'Connell, president of the Antioch club, introduced Franklin D. Wood, Chicago, representative of the Chicago Women's Fair. He spoke of the plans for the next World Fair to be held in Chicago in 1933. He also told of the success of the fair despite a financial depression.

That Chicago people are already enthusiastic about the coming fair, was brought out by Mr. Wood. The 1933 fair, he said, is to be an exposition of scientific development as contrasted with the purely physical fair of 1893 when the first electrical displays of the world were made.

Mrs. Harry Grady, president of the Tenth district of Federated clubs, spoke briefly, as did Mrs. G. W. Munch, Lake county president, and Mrs. Werner, Lake Zurich. Mrs. O'Connell, Antioch extended greetings to Antioch to the Lake Villa women.

The tables were beautifully decorated, carrying out a suggestion of autumn. Orange tapestries burned on each table, and through the centers of the dark tables were wide strips of orange crepe paper. Bowls of barberry were on the tables, and on the speakers' and officers' table was a large basket of autumn fruits. Following the luncheon Mr. Bradley played the pipe organ in the chapel. James H. Boden, Athens, Ohio, spent Tuesday night in Antioch as the guest of his daughter, Miss V. Luedel Boden.

ANTIOCH MOTHERS' CLUB HEAR BELVIDERE DOCTOR

Preventative medicine was stressed by Dr. Ralph Foster, Belvidere, Ill., in an address before members of the Mothers' club at a meeting held in the Antioch grade school Tuesday afternoon.

The practice of many mothers was to send their children to school when ill, without knowing that such a contracted was spread by Dr. Foster. These doctors, he said, are, in fact, ignorant that their children realize and so avoid statistics showing that there were 1500 deaths from measles in Illinois last year, and more than 1000 deaths from whooping cough. The importance of vaccination was stressed, but Dr. Foster said that there is no vaccine for measles. German measles or far several other diseases.

Methodist Notes
Armistice Day—the only international holiday falls on Sunday this year and will be fittingly celebrated the world over. No hamlet, however, small but what will have some kind of a program to honor the great day.

The Antioch Methodist church has planned a Community Armistice Day service to be held in the evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The Antioch Post of the American Legion and the Ladies Auxiliary will want to be present as will every American citizen as Armistice Day for the younger generation means the same as did Memorial Day for the older generation. On the program will be several musical numbers by the Auxiliary quartette. Rev. A. M. Kral will speak on "The Waste of Controversy." Mr. Edward Slater will preside at the organ.

The morning service is at 10:45. The Gloria choir will sing. Prof. Hane Vonnolow will play the organ. These, together with the spirit of worship which prevails within the tabernacle will bring peace and joy to the heart of everyone present. The young peoples group will meet at 5 o'clock in the church parlor.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trager are celebrating the birth of a son, Ralph, Bernard. The baby was born at the home of Mrs. Trager's parents in Evansville, Indiana, October 25.

Mrs. Charles Rhodes and son returned to their home in Grand Tower Saturday after being the guests for two weeks of Mrs. Rhodes' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. S. Boyer Nelson, Main street.

More Than $100 Made At Two Presentations Of "Cheer Up" Revue

Play is Success Financially Despite The Weather Conditions.

More than $100 was cleared by members of the Antioch Women's club at two presentations, Thursday and Friday nights, of a home-made play, "Cheer Up." The play was staged under the direction of Mrs. J. H. Kral, representing the club. The play was a success financially.

An announcement the amount cleared by members of the club at the regular meeting this week. Mrs. W. H. O'Connell, president, said that this is far greater than expected since both nights of the play were rainy and cold.

The various acts of the revue, as well as the specialty numbers were enthusiastically received by the audience. The act of the children, the numbers by the high school students, and the choruses and dances by the older persons pleased those present. Especially popular was the waltz in which the characters were Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. H. H. Garton, Mrs. Charles Rhodes, Mrs. George Garland, Harold Nelson, Rex Foster, John Nixon, Lester Diamond and John E. Moore.

Virginia Depper and Ruth Chinn were graceful and clever in their tap dance, and both nights they had to respond to requests. Bud Smallfield, radio artist, whose voice carries a million dollar worth, and whose playing on the ukulele is better than that of many professionals had to answer four requests. The audience would gladly have spent an evening listening to this boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hawkins are announcing the birth of a daughter. The child has been named Gertrude Marie.

Three weeks until Thanksgiving! Will someone kindly page a turkey for us?

We heard a fellow say the other day, "I'll be awful glad when this election is over. Maybe we can get something besides politics on our radio." We suppose he is happy now.

Just a line for thought—Talked to a traveling man the other day who was buying some Christmas presents in our town. I said, "Thought you lived in Chicago?" "I do," he answered, "but I always buy a sum-bur of my Christmas presents."

Apple: "Why can't flies see?" Sauce: "Because they leave their specks on the wall."

Truth is not only stranger than fiction, but a lot more familiar.

Leslie Perry, who lives east of Pikeville, who has just about completed his new barn, knows that a clean, warm, well planned dairy barn pays dividends in time and labor saved as well as in larger cream checks.

It used to be chivalry that prompted men to give women drivers the right of way. Now it is common sense.

Have you seen our combination doors? They are really a double duty two-in-one door. These doors combine both beauty and efficiency. By merely changing the panels you convert a comfortable screen door into a warm, durable, weatherproof, storm door.

REPUBLICANS VICTORS IN LANDSLIDE VOTE

active plumes, in Delaware and New Jersey Hoover beat Smith two to one.

If there was any doubt of the landslide proportions of the Hoover victory it was dispelled when unofficial returns disclosed that the Republican ticket had swept Missouri, with its 48 electoral votes.

When the returns from Virginia with only 300 precincts missing gave Hoover a lead of 17,000 in that state the Democratic central committee conceded the state to the Republican candidate.

Hoover swept Kentucky by a plural vote estimated at more than 150,000. Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Ohio and Kansas went to Hoover by large pluralities.

Wisconsin for Hoover.

Latest figures obtainable pointed to a Hoover sweep of Wisconsin of more than 100,000 plurality. Even Milwaukee, where the voters predicted that Smith would get most all the votes hesitated to follow the La Follette leaders into the Democratic camp.

But it was in the border and southern states where the monsoon of fat lots smashed through the traditions of sixty years in perhaps the most remarkable political upheaval in the country's history.

The Republican lead in Kentucky read more like an Illinois or Michigan plurality.

Oklahoma was won by Hoover by a plurality of 20,000 or 40,000.

In 1928 out of 1,293 precincts in Florida Hoover was 12,000 in the lead. Tennessee was close, but the Nashville Tennessee conceded the state to Hoover by at least 10,000.

Virginia Sets Precedent.

Virginia stepped out of the "solid South" for the first time in the history of the Old Dominion. With more than two-thirds of the precincts reporting Hoover had a lead of approximately 16,000.

Swinging into the wheat and corn belt, Hoover ballots swept across Kansas like a tornado. The state is believed to be his by a vote probably of 3 to 1.

Nebraska, despite the bolt of Senator George W. Norris, rolled up a large lead for Hoover. Returns from 252 out of 1,987 precincts in the state gave him 43,131 to 27,576 for Smith.

Early figures from Minnesota were close, but showed the Hoover trend. Reports from 305 out of 3,762 precincts in the state gave him 68,542 and Smith 58,047.

In 137 precincts out of 2,197 in North Dakota Hoover had 18,523 and Smith 11,280.

Hoover was indicated as piling up a 2 to 1 vote in Colorado.

California apparently rolled up a handsome majority for her favorite son. In 425 out of 9,080 precincts in the state Hoover had 60,481 and Smith 28,328.

CHANGES IN CONGRESS

Republican majorities were increased in both houses of congress in the senate the Republicans gained at least five seats and possibly as many as seven or eight. Official returns may show that the seven radical Republicans have been dislodged from the balance of power.

In the house the Republicans have gained at least fourteen seats and probably more.

The present house is made up of 237 Republicans, 195 Democrats, two Farmer Labor members, and one Socialist. Incomplete returns show a Republican total of 251, or a gain of 14. It is believed that further reports will show a number of other Republican gains. The Democratic total has been reduced to 181. The two Farmer Labor members and the Socialist appear to have been re-elected.

The changes in both the senate and house membership represented not gains for the drys. Already both houses were overwhelmingly dry. So far as was apparent from unofficial returns, Al Smith's wet program failed to elect any new wets to congress.

Burton Victor in Ohio.

One of the Republican gains in senate seats was in Ohio, where Representative Theodore E. Burton, veteran legislator, who served first in the house, then in the senate, and then again in the house, was elected to the place which became vacant last spring with the death of Senator Willis (Rep.). For the other Ohio senatorial seat, Senator Fess (Rep.) was re-elected over Charles V. Traux, Democrat.

Other Republican senators apparently re-elected by ample majorities included Senators Vandenberg (Mich.), Frazier (N. D.), Thomas (Idaho), Johnson (Calif.), Reed (Pa.), and Greene (Vt.).

La Follette Easy Winner.

In Wisconsin, Senator La Follette, radical Republican, who refused to support Hoover, won over William H. Markham, Independent, without difficulty.

New Republican senators elected for the first time include Otis F. Glenn, Republican, who won in Illinois over A. J. Cermak, Democrat, and Frederick C. Walcott, Republican, who won in Connecticut over Augustus Longergan, Democrat. Mr. Glenn will fill the McKinley seat, to which Frank L. Smith was originally elected. Mr. Walcott will succeed Senator McLean, Republican, who was not a candidate for re-nomination.

Illinois Is Proud Of Governor-Elect

It must be with considerable gratification that Hon. Louis L. Emmerson, governor-elect, surveyed the election returns of Tuesday when he was given a great vote of confidence by the people of Illinois.

Mr. Emmerson has given nearly twelve years' honorable and efficient service as secretary of state, and it has been his desire, he has stated to friends, to round out his public career by serving the people of a great state as governor. The ambition is a laudable one, and thousands of his personal friends throughout the state are rejoicing with him today over the outcome of Tuesday's balloting, which means that thus far the secretary has achieved his purpose. Who, it is asked, is better qualified to administer the office of chief executive than is Mr. Emmerson?

Political enemies he has, but their false charges failed utterly before the ballot of Illinois voters.

As governor, Mr. Emmerson will give Illinois a constructive, clean and fine administration.

Voters Endorse Man of Spotless Record

To know how Bill Stratton, secretary of state-elect, stands in his home community, one has but to see the election returns of Tuesday.

"The way to have friends is to be one," says the old adage, and Bill Stratton certainly has been a real friend to everyone throughout his public career. No one ever says anything bad about Mr. Stratton—and here's the reason: THEY CAN'T. It's difficult in any kind of a race, to defeat a man who believes and practices that "Honesty is the best policy."

Congratulations, Bill Stratton, and here's how!!

One brilliant young man of Antioch laughingly remarked that since there are so many card parties, dances, plays, and other amusements around Antioch, a public nursery should be started so that mama and papa could both go places and do things the same night. Wouldn't be such a bad idea, would it?

Jokes about Al Smith—jokes about Herb Hoover—jokes about the campaign—all the jokes that have been told in Antioch for weeks have been related, in some way, to the election, but what's worrying us now is, that since the voting is all over, there may not be any funny stories told until 1932.

LAKE VILLA

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mork drove to Park Ridge Friday and spent the day with friends.

Haley and Bentner of the Milwaukee Grand service station have torn down the shop they have been using as a workshop and are replacing it with a larger modern one to care for their increasing business.

Miss Lena Sobora has been spending the last two weeks with friends in Oshkosh, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Pinch, Chestnut Farm, is entertaining her mother who lives in Pennsylvania.

The Rev. McKelvey and daughter, Margaret, Stewart, called on friends here Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weber, Jr. spent two days early in the week with the Edgar Kerr family in Bloomington, before starting on a two months' trip to California and other western states. They made the trip by automobile.

Mrs. Paul Avery and Mrs. Fred Hamlin were Waukegan visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Seeger were in Kenosha Friday.

The Primary department of the M. E. Sunday school enjoyed a party at the church Saturday afternoon. Constance Bodin and Elsie Philip assisted with the games. Mrs. Fred Hamlin, Mrs. Pinch and Mrs. C. B. Hamlin were in charge of the party.

Mrs. Horace Culver and Mrs. E. Culver were in Waukegan Saturday afternoon.

Clark Keller has gone to Dakota on a hunting trip for a few weeks.

The Antioch and Lake Villa Woman's clubs combined their meetings Monday afternoon in a joint session at Allendale Farm with Mrs. Bradley as hostess, and had a splendid meeting. More than 100 enjoyed the hospitality of Allendale, and inspected the Allendale buildings and grounds. All were impressed with the wholesomeness of the place. At 2:30 o'clock each group transacted its business and then adjourned to the dining room with the table decorations of yellow and autumn colors. Mrs. Gertrude Hamlin, president of the Lake Villa club welcomed the guests and introduced the speakers, Mrs. Grady, district president, Mrs. Munch, county president, and Mrs. Wesley Boyer, who spoke on "The American Home." Judge Wood, Chicago, was introduced by the Antioch club president, Mrs. Osmond, and told of the Chicago World's Fair of 1933. A chorus from Zion favored with two selections.

The parsonage is being redecorated and repaired in readiness for the new minister and his family who expect to be here before Thanksgiving.

OF WHICH DO YOU BOAST?

Don't times change? Can't most of you remember when it was often quite embarrassing to be considered healthy, as it was almost impossible to enter a conversation unless you talked of your "ailments"? If a woman went to a meeting of the Ladies' Aid, the missionary society, or the sewing club, she boasted of her ills, her husband's ills, her children's ills, and ills that were likely to fall on some members of the family. She bragged about how many ills her children had had, and the woman whose children had had the most diseases was a heroine!

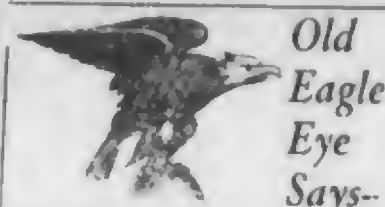

Today the attitude toward illness is changed. Everybody talks about few illnesses there are in the family. "Why, we haven't had a doctor in our house for months," is often heard. Everybody wants to be well, for being well means happiness. Good health is the greatest asset one can possess. Schools, churches, and homes make it possible for every boy and girl to enjoy benefits which will better the health of these boys and girls. People are beginning to realize more than ever how fortunate one is to have inherited a good physical body, and it is the duty of every man and woman to give their children sound bodies from birth, and then through training and correct living see that their health is preserved. To boast of illness is a sin, but to boast of good health is certainly legitimate.

Good pictures, if one is near them a great deal, have a surprising amount of influence on one's life. Reproductions of many famous paintings hang in the corridors and rooms of the schools of Antioch. Children of the grade school as well as the high school students are fortunate to have close association with paintings which are recognized as great.

Whenever a picture is hung on a wall of a home, grave responsibility is assumed, for the picture addresses the eye, and it is certain that as long as the picture hangs it will influence, for good or bad, the aesthetic taste of those who have been under its spell. Boys and girls study paintings, sometimes unconsciously, and the coloring, the design, and the pattern are pleasing or displeasing. The coloring, especially, is soothing or not, as the case may be, just as a soft wall paper is comforting while a gay pattern often upsets one's "nerves."

There are few homes today where one finds the walls literally plastered with pictures of calendars, sent out by business firms—cheap pictures of dogs, children, flowers, or women. Magazine pictures frequently used to be "glorified" on the parlor walls. The picture should be a part of the home life, should be expressive of the individuals of the home, and should bring happiness to the entire family.

Greetings, folks! How's tricks today? Couldn't be better, could they? At least, that's the way Old Eagle Eye feels about it. Antioch is such a grand place to be even if the weather is getting colder and colder.

Strange, isn't it, that residents of Antioch don't seem to know when it is cold? One of the coldest mornings this week, Harry Radtke was sweeping the walk in front of the Radtke barber shop, and he wasn't even wearing a coat. Shirt sleeves—and freezing temperatures! It's like sitting on a cake of ice in December eating an ice cream lollypop. But—everybody in Antioch thinks it's warm. Oh! IF WINTER COMES—!

"Aunt Sarah" just went down town. She has lived here a great many years. Expect she could tell some interesting tales about Antioch, Antioch residents, and about everything in general. Don't you suppose?

Dressed in a black leather coat, wearing a cap, and smoking a pipe, Arthur Edgar looks as though he had just stepped out of a picture on a calendar—one of those pictures of a hunter, a dog, and a gun. But when Mr. Edgar is dressed in the manner described, he's merely going for the morning mail.

Don't know what the joke was, but it certainly must have been funny. At least, Saturday Daisy Richards, Ruth Cribb, and Russ Barthel were making as much noise as 12 persons usually make. They were in a regular "huddle" (speaking in the language of football men) and they laughed and they laughed and they—well, they did everything but tell the joke to everybody else.

Old Eagle Eye is just the kind, Who is looking for what he can.

LAKE BLUFF RESIDENT KILLS SELF WITH GAS

Despondent over ill health, Julian W. Hagberg, 49, a roomer at 118 Prospect avenue, Lake Bluff, committed suicide by inhaling gas. He had been dead only a few minutes when Mrs. C. G. Clark, a registered nurse, in a vain effort to restore life to the body.

The Lake Bluff police were summoned and artificial respiration was applied for a half hour under the direction of Mrs. Clark, a registered nurse, in a vain effort to restore life to the body.

Bud; When it comes to a show-down, He'll have all the low-down, For believe me, he is far from blind.

Old Eagle Eye now blinks goodbye to everyone—UNTIL NEXT WEEK, Be Good.

CONSTANT EXPANSION

—to serve Chevrolet owners better

consecutive year, the world's largest builder of automobiles!

This outstanding achievement has been attained not only because of the quality and value of Chevrolet cars—but also because there has been a constant expansion of Chevrolet service facilities.

In order to bring these mammoth facilities of the Chevrolet factories to Chevrolet dealers and owners everywhere, there have been erected 26 huge parts warehouses in the principal centers of distribution. This expansion program is continually going on—for four great additional warehouses will be in operation by January first and seven more by the summer of 1929.

Into the service departments of all Chevrolet dealers, Chevrolet has brought special tools and shop equipment—designed under the supervision of Chevrolet engineers. This equipment definitely assures maximum speed and precision and the lowest possible cost in the performance of every Chevrolet service and repair operation—which are charged for on a flat rate basis.

Furthermore, all of these tremendous facilities have been made available to 15,000 authorized service stations manned by skilled mechanics, over 25,000 of whom have been factory trained to efficiently handle every repair operation on a Chevrolet car. In addition, there are over 4,000 other points where genuine Chevrolet parts may be obtained.

Uniformly efficient, uniformly reliable and within easy reach of everybody everywhere—this great service organization is maintaining at peak efficiency the fine performance for which Chevrolet cars have always been renowned.

We cordially invite you to come in and see how our service facilities reflect the influence of this great national service program.

Boys at Allendale Live Together as Large and Congenial Family; Work, Play and Study are Fun

By V. Ludel Boden

Did you ever build castles in the air, and then see the castles float away with the clouds? Have you ever dreamed that something would come true, but after a while the dream was dismissed from your mind?

Not so with Edward L. Bradley, founder and director of the Allendale Farm school, Lake Villa, for when Mr. Bradley everybody calls him "Captain" dreamed a dream, he began working to see that his plans would materialize, and what a pleasure it must be for Mrs. Bradley and him to see 100 happy boys in ideal surroundings, the lives of those youths being molded, shaped, and patterned under the influence, teaching, and direction of the Bradleys.

Allendale Farm is a picturesque place, situated on Cedar Lake. Its cottages, its trees, its shrubs, and in the summer its flowers, make a beautiful picture. One is reminded of an English village or the painting called the English Garden. And isn't there a trace of an intangible something which reminds you of Shakespeare's home? The stucco buildings (what a cold word "buildings" is for a place such as Allendale!) with the low, slanting shingle roofs, the ivy twining proudly and happily up the walls of the cottages, school and chapel, and the happy, smiling boys make Allendale a creation unique.

Every boy at Allendale has an opportunity to develop his initiative and individuality. The rod is never used. There is no atmosphere of an institution because Allendale does not follow institution patterns. The boys live in cottages with a house mother as supervisor. Each cottage is more like a club house—a fraternity. Each cottage has a dining room, a piano, a phonograph, books—everything to help give a "homey" feeling. The boys take a pride in their homes. Although there are 16 in a cottage, Mr. Bradley says that he hopes that before long there will only be 12 in a cottage.

Rooms Are Attractive

The boys help on the farm from 6 to 7 o'clock in the morning, then eat breakfast, go to school, and return to their farm duties or their household work. Then they have plenty of time for play. The gymnasium is well equipped, and the Allendale school is noted for unusually good basketball teams each season.

The rooms are attractive, and the school standards are as high as those in the public schools. The teachers are paid more, on the average, than those in Chicago. The boys at Allendale range from the fifth to the ninth grade. The boys may then live at Allendale for three years while attending high school in Antioch or some other vicinity. In this way, a boy graduating from Allendale has a high school education. The art work done by the boys is remarkable, and the printing shop displays reveal the many kinds of job work the boys can do.

The boys boast of their farm work and of the many ribbons won with the chickens, cattle, hogs, sheep, and other livestock. If a boy wants to raise chickens, he is given space and equipment to carry out his project.

The physical side of a boy, however, is not all that is developed, for the boy's spiritual life is nurtured also. The chapel seems like a miniature cathedral. The interior is so majestically plain and simple. Soft shades of brown and tan are colored only by the tiny red leather covers of the hymnals and the light shining through the art glass window in which red is the predominating color of the Bible scene.

Contributions Made

Allendale Farm is the outgrowth of a summer camp for boys which Mr. Bradley started along Fox Lake in 1894. In 1895 the camp was moved to the present location of the school. Mr. Bradley succeeded in interesting others in his project, and in 1897 he was able to start the present institution. There were only 12 boys and three adults, compared to the 100 boys and 25 adults today. No more than 100 boys are permitted to enter. There were 40 acres of land in 1897.

and today there are 261 acres. The property is held in trust by the Allendale association of Chicago.

The school is supported entirely by voluntary contributions. There is no endowment and there is no help from the state. Mr. Bradley calls the plan of financing the "Boy Plan" which means that individuals may provide all or any part of the $400 a year that is necessary for the support and education of any particular boy. Some business men are supporting even more than one boy.

Many of the boys have been deprived of the advantages of a home with parental care, and Allendale is trying to help the boys realize what a true home is like. An Alumni association of the school, known as the Bradley club, has more than 1,200 members, and many of the club members hold positions of responsibility and influence in Chicago and in other vicinities.

ONE MAN DISMISSED

Cases Centered About Man
Abandoned Near Antioch
To Be Heard.

Dismissal of one, Allen A. Striker, and the order of another to appear for trial were the results of the hearings in the municipal court, Kenosha, Friday. The hearings grew out of the kidnapping and tarring of an Allen A. strike breaker September 26 and abandoning him near Antioch.

Municipal Judge John Slater held that the testimony against Earl Steele, identifying him as one of the four masked men in the kidnapping case, was insufficient to bind him over for trial. Elmer Hackbarth, who made the confession implicating Steele and two others in the kidnapping, will stand trial with Oliver Hux and Dwight Jones, who are held on bail of $6,500 each, on similar charges.

ANY CAR WILL START QUICKER AND PERFORM BETTER WITH THIS HIGH COMPRESSION GASOLINE . .

IF quick starting were the only advantage of Super-Shell, it would be a remarkable gasoline. If it had only the ability to stop knocks, it would have a full measure of popularity, but Super-Shell, in any car, sponsors new thrills in motoring all along the line. The moment you touch the starter there's action. You're away with acceleration that is swift and unhesitating. Power? More than you ever before experienced.

Naphthene-base crude oils give Super-Shell ample anti-knock properties. Shell has triumphantly proved that it is possible to produce an altogether satisfactory high-compression fuel without resorting to foreign chemicals or sacrificing a single desirable performance feature. Such a superfine gasoline is naturally bound to improve the performance of any car—its effectiveness in not restricted to high compression service.

Test Super-Shell under the most trying conditions. You will quickly be convinced that the few cents per gallon extra is a trifling fee for motoring at its best.

TELL OF DROWNING

Further particulars have been told regarding the drowning of Lewis J. Paddock, 24, in Little Bass Lake, near Remer, Minnesota, late in October.

Mr. Paddock, with his father, Irving L. Paddock, also of Antioch, and a brother-in-law, L. L. Forster, had been visiting at the F. E. Filz home. The elder Mr. Paddock has been a friend of Mr. Filz for more than 20 years, and has been going to his home to enjoy hunting and fishing each year.

The day the accident occurred Lewis Paddock went alone to Little Bass Lake to fish, and when he did not return a searching party was organized. His car was found on the shore of the lake and the boat which Paddock used was found at the shore of the lake, partly submerged. The body was not recovered until the next morning, when it was found directly beneath the boat in about six and one-half feet of water.

It is believed that in hauling in the anchor of the boat, Mr. Paddock slipped into the water, and being chilled, was unable to get out. The boat had an exceptionally heavy anchor, making it unusually dangerous, it is said.

LOUIS L. EMMERSON
IS GOVERNOR-ELECT

to him by the Thompson-Crowe ward leaders in Chicago. In that city and in Cook county Cernak had a big lead, but the down state returns not only wiped this out but put Glenn on the winning side with approximately 200,000 majority.

Attorney General Oscar E. Carlstrom, running for reelection, had the easiest time and led the state ticket after Emerson, coming closer to the Hoover majority than any other. He had the advantage of having held the office for four years, of having withdrawn from the gubernatorial contest in favor of Emerson and of being an exceedingly able campaigner, so his victory over State Senator Thomas J. Courtney of Chicago never was in doubt.

Officials Re-elected.

Lieutenant Governor Fred Sterling and State Auditor Oscar Nelson retain their offices. William J. Stratton won the office of secretary of state, notwithstanding the strong fight put up by his Democratic opponent, Alderman William D. Meyerling of Chicago. Omar S. Custer returns to the state treasurer's office in which he served a term ending two years ago; and the Republican candidates for places on the board of trustees of the University of Illinois went in with the rest of the ticket without any trouble.

To fill the vacancy on the Supreme court bench caused by the resignation of Floyd Thompson, Cyrus Dietz was elected, defeating Warren H. Orr.

Richard M. Yates was sent back to Washington as congressman at large, and Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick was elected to the similar position made vacant by the death of Henry R. Rathbone.

The Illinois delegation in congress remains 20 Republicans and 7 Democrats. The Democrats elected Harry Baker in the First district, where Oscar De Priest, colored Chicago politician, was the Republican nominee; but in the Twenty-first district Frank M. Ramey, Republican, ousted the Democratic congressman, J. Earl Major.

In the state legislative contests the Democrats won some notable victories, the chief of which was the defeat of John (Dingbat) Oberha, Chicago gang leader and candidate for state senator in the Fourth district, by Frank McDermott. However, the partisan complexion of the legislature was little changed, the Republicans retaining the control of both chambers by large majorities.

BARNEY IS DEFEATED
TO DELIGHT OF FANS

Tomorrow Night's Card Looks Like It Will Get O. K. of Spectators

A big double windup is promised at the Palace tomorrow night, with Wesley Johnson of Platteville's gym, and Ray Trumble, Sammy Mandell's gym, in a return match as one of the headliners, and Elmer Bennett, a Mitchell product, and Jimmy Murphy, Belle Plaine A. C. in the other half of the windup.

The entire card is certain to be a good one, with Platteville's fighters supporting one-half of the card, and Barney Ross, Jimmy Chase, and Jimmy Hull are going to be on hand to play their parts.

The fights scheduled, besides the windups, follow: Jim Grippy, Mitchell gym, vs. Billie Blue, McHenry, 155 pounds, return, Frank Tenyson, Mitchell gym, vs. Bob Stone, Chicago, 170 pounds, Eddie Lisberg, Mitchell gym, vs. Barney Ross, Chicago, 128 pounds, return match, Gus DeSalvo, Mitchell gym, vs. Pete Simatis, 135 pounds, Mandell gym, John Gaudes, Mitchell gym, vs. Jimmy Chase, 112 pounds, return match, and Matt Dahlmann, Mitchell gym, vs. Jimmy Hull, 125 pounds, Lake Villa, return match.

It was a real hot night at the Palace Friday night when Barney Ross, who has formerly come out on top in fights at the Palace, met defeat at the hands of Jack Logan, one of the St. Charles boys who made the card last week a lively one.

Barney has been the idol of regular Friday night fans for a long time, but when the decision was against him, there was one whoop of joy. The unexpected had happened! Ross fighting was more clever than that of Logan, but Logan was there with the old punch. The last round was a free-for-all, both men going at the business madly. The entire fight was a close one, but Logan slightly had the edge.

Bobby Juhrend fought as a substitute for a St. Charles man who couldn't tip the scales as they should have been. He opposed Harry Logg, and Logg was the winner.

Larry Levette and Bill Solomon, St. Charles, had a hard tussle, both of them being unusually alert for fear that the other would put something over. It was like a side-splitting comedy when Solomon fell on the floor, grabbed Levette's legs, and held to them when the latter tried to get free.

Jimmy Murphy was winner again at the Palace. Billy Boyd, St. Charles, wasn't an easy one to fight, however, for Murphy had to use his best. Boyd started out with plenty of strength, but he gave out, and took the nine count more than once.

Johnnie Taylor, Waukegan Negro, attending the St. Charles institution, fought Charley Zschmale. Taylor lost, but not by much. Jimmy Chase was winner again, this time over Jack Ingers, in a glove and take match.

Fights at Twin Lakes
Will Present Flashes
In Contests Tonight

Real Battles Are Scheduled
Once More For Charlie Rademacher's Ring.

Once again we may repeat to-night's the night, for tonight professional fighters will be in action in the Twin Lakes ring. If the fights are anything like those of three weeks ago, there will be more than a little action. Promoter Charlie Rademacher started the season with a good card, and he's trying to keep the standards high.

Six rounds are scheduled for Mike Clanelola and Jimmie Cashill. Clanelola comes from Milwaukee where he is dubbed "Italian Mike." He couldn't appear on Rademacher's first card, as had been planned, because he had sustained a fractured rib in practice, but he will be on hand tonight. Cashill calls Kenosha his home now, but he originally was a product of St. Paul.

In the other half of the windup Irvin Berni will have for his opponent George Mavis. Both are flashes and they'll probably dash tonight. Mavis appeared on the first Twin Lakes fight.

After Wildest Jack Murphy scored five k.o.'s right-agoing in Milwaukee, fans began to sit up and take notice, just as they'll do tonight when Murphy meets a Panama Indian, Dynamite Jackson.

Other fights scheduled for tonight are: Jack Hanley, Green Bay, vs. Franklin Cheek, Philadelphia typoman, 122 pounds, Max Steward, Milwaukee southpaw, vs. Battling Chuck, rugged welter, 150 pounds; Al Terry, West Mills, vs. Jack Phillips, Chicago.

HELP FOR HARD WORKERS

Men who work hard, and those whose daily tasks expose them to changeable weather conditions, are usually subject to kidney ailments, and kindred ills. J. G. Wolf, Green Bay, Wisconsin, says: "Foley Pils relieved me of a severe back ache that had bothered me for several months. A few bottles fixed me up in good shape." Cost little, satisfaction guaranteed. Men and women everywhere use and recommend them. On sale at Klug's Drug Store.
